Press Release

Ur-Energy Announces Start of 2011 Drilling Program

Littleton, Colorado (Marketwire – July 19, 2011) Ur-Energy Inc. (TSX:URE, NYSE Amex:URG) (“Ur-Energy” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the start of the 2011 drilling program at the Lost Creek Project (the “Project”) as well as the continuation of its exploration efforts at its Lost Creek North property. The Company returned to the field with four drill rigs on July 18, 2011 to install wells and perform exploration drilling.

With Project permitting nearly complete, the Company is installing several wells which will be utilized to conduct hydrology testing on the KM horizon. This is in preparation of a future license/permit amendment to include the KM horizon as an approved mining formation. The remainder of the 2011 drilling program will be focused on exploring for uranium within a previously undrilled area of the Project and in the adjacent Lost Creek North property.

John Cash, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs, Exploration & Geology stated “The continued drilling at the Lost Creek Project and its adjacent properties reaffirms the Company’s continued commitment to further develop its resources. Ur-Energy’s position in the Great Divide Basin continues to be enhanced through our ongoing drilling and exploration programs.”
